

PSW

Aspire, the leading education empowerment company that focuses on Africa, is thrilled to announce its strategic partnership with Spark Health and Business School, a top-tier learning institution in Canada. This collaboration aims to offer young Africans low-cost educational opportunities, career reorientation, and access to career opportunities in Canada. The partnership leverages Aspire's network and pan-African presence to provide a gateway for African students to gain international education and working experience. Aspire and Spark Health and Business School firmly believe that this partnership will have a positive impact on the lives of young Africans by enabling them to develop their skills, progress in their careers, and contribute to their communities.
